Arrangements have been completed for the appearance in Barre of the well known interpreter of the plays of Shakespeare, Mr. Hannibal A. Williams. The great historical drama, "King Henry the Fourth" has been chosen from his long repertoire of plays and on Friday evening, December 4, it will be given under the patronage of a long list of our appreciative citizens. Through the courtesy of the trustees, the recital will be given in the Universalist church.

The Bijou theatre has no mean program to present to-day. Several who saw it yesterday were high in their praise of it. "Life of a Scilian Hermit" is about as good a picture in the way of true life as one often sees. The scenes of it are laid in Sicily and the principal character, the hermit, is no counterfeit. Another very good one is "The Jester." One who has ever read Scott's Ivanhoe and remembers the jester in that will be deeply interested in this picture, as the two characters are striking parallels. "Bonnie Jean" is the illustrated song.

DUE TO THE WATER.

St. Albans Cases of Typhoid Fever, It Is Thought.

St. Albans, Nov. 21.—There are several cases of typhoid fever in the city and it is the general opinion that they are the result of the condition of the water. The cases seem to be confined at present to the district bounded by Elm street, Lake and Spruce and there are seven cases at present. Dr. Arthur Morton, health officer, advises that all water, wherever obtained be boiled ten minutes before it is taken into the system and with a reasonable amount of care it is thought an epidemic will be averted.

A special meeting of the Foresters of America will be held Sunday at 1:30 o'clock for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late brother, Alex. S. Robertson. Wear white gloves.
